UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. PennDOT – As previously discussed at the Regular Meeting on April 13, 2026 on Tuesday, March 24, 2026 the township was notified by Cindy Gemmell, PennDOT Traffic Control Specialist that the Crash Avoidance System installation at the intersection of SR 36 and SR 949 successfully passed the 30-day operational test as specified in the contract. Therefore, maintenance of the Crash Avoidance System now becomes the responsibility of Eldred Township. The contractor will guarantee the signal equipment for 180 consecutive days beginning with the official date of the successful completion of the 30-day test, which was March 11, 2026. The guarantee will end September 7, 2026.

The Secretary/Treasurer contacted the Township's Insurance Company and obtained the following. The annual estimate to insure the Crash Avoidance System would be $671.00 for this term (to be pro-rated). The annual estimate for 2026-2027 would be $684.00.

2. Tractor Trailer Recovery Fee – The Secretary/Treasurer has been in contact with the trucking company whose driver got stuck on Spring Creek Road in severe weather. Per the company’s Breakdown Division, a payment will be made for the invoice.

3. Equipment - Discuss potential changes to the fleet of equipment.

4. Public Comment Period - Motion by Supervisor Raybuck to limit public comment period to three minutes at the beginning of regular meetings and three minutes at the end of regular meeting per person. Second by Supervisor MacBeth. Vote: 3 ayes. Motion carried.

5. Mill Run Bridge – There will be a monthly progress meeting on Wednesday, May 13, 2026 at 9:00 at the Field Office.

6. Tar and Chip Projects – Motion by Chairman Greeley to obtain bid to tar and chip Osborne Road and Huey Road. Second by Supervisor MacBeth. Vote: 3 ayes. Motion carried.
